CHILDRENS BOOK WEEK 2017
“Escape to Everywhere”

Hey Kids! Welcome to Book Week 2017. Please find below information on the competitions we are holding as a part of Book Week. You can win book vouchers in each category. Your entries will be displayed in your local Library and we want as many as we can get.

Children’s Book Week celebrates its 72nd birthday in 2017, making it the longest running children’s festival in Australia. It is organised by the Childrens Book Council of Australia. The week aims to celebrate the achievements of Australian books, authors and illustrators.

CHILDRENS BOOK WEEK 2017 COMPETITION
“Escape to Everywhere
Make a 3D Bike

The Patchwork Bike had a bent bucket seat, handlebar branches, bashed tin can handles, wood-cut wheels, a flag from a flour sack, a bell that used to be a milk pot. What does your patchwork bike look like?

What would you use for a:

- Seat
- Handlebar
- Wheels
- Flag
- Bell
- Lights
- Numberplate

Design and construct a 3D mini patchwork bike that can be moved along like a real toy.

Brainstorm the materials you might use/require.

Draw the design of your bike utilising these materials.
