Introduction

The following new procedures are to be carried out where the Group Manager of Council’s ‘Planning and Environment Group’ (PEG), or Manager Planning Services are of the view that Development Applications may be refused which are grossly deficient in the required information subject to:

a. Applications have been with Council six months since lodgement; and
b. Staff having sent at least four letters requesting the additional information or inviting withdrawal.