Information requested

A Building Records search is a written summary of the development history according to Councils records. If you need to confirm or rely on this information, you should apply for a new Building Certificate

Select questions to be addressed by the search:

- What building or development approvals are one the property file
- Have any final occupation certificates been issued
- Has a building certificate been issued

A physical inspection of the property is not included; or advice that a building does or does not comply with the Building Codes, Standards or approved plans. The building records search does not include copies of plans, reports or certificates. Copies of such documents may be available, subject to verified written owner consent (non-owner) and copyright laws.
